Senior Vice-President Energy
Wardrop Engineering, A Tetra Tech Company

Hany Michael is Senior Vice-President Energy, at Wardrop At Tetra Tech Company. In addition he oversees Wardrop's four offices in the GTA.

Wardrop is the Canadian division of the US-based company Tetra Tech. Tetra Tech is a publicly traded company that provides responsible resource management and sustainable infrastructure services that encompass the full life cycle of solutions. Wardrop serves clients in the energy, mining, and infrastructure sectors around the world.

Wardrop has offices across Canada, the United Kingdom, China, India and Africa, but its reach extends farther through its parent company.

In 1996 Hany founded Wardrop's Nuclear Division, with only four employees. That business unit now ranks in the top 10 Nuclear Engineering firms in North America, in terms of revenue. He was also instrumental in growing Wardrop to be one of the top 100 Engineering firms in North America.

Wardrop has been recognized by McLean's Magazine, as one of Canada's Top 100 Employers, an unprecedented 8 times.

Hany serves on the boards of a number of organizations, including:

- Canadian Nuclear Association (Executive Committee);
- Electricity Sector Council;
- Rouge Valley Health System Foundation;
- Erin Mills Soccer Club.

He is a member of the Canadian Nuclear Society, the British Nuclear Energy Society, the Ontario Chamber of Commerce, and the Institute of Corporate Directors.

His formal education includes a B.Sc. in Chemistry from the University of Toronto and a B.Sc. in Chemical & Petroleum Engineering from the University of Calgary.

He has completed a number of continuing education programs including Harvard Business School's Leading Professional Service Firms, Corporate Risk Compliance from the Schulich School of Business at York University, Project Risk Management from Stanford University and most recently completed his Directorate Program at the Institute for Corporate Directors.

Hany and his wife Claire live in Mississauga and have three children.
