

Michael Roberts
Vice President, Human Resources
Bruce Power

Michael Roberts is Vice President, Human Resources of Bruce Power.

Michael has extensive experience in corporate and site operations with accomplishments in human resources, industrial relations, business development, contract negotiations, collective agreement administration and change management within union and non-union environments.

Michael joined Bruce Power from Suncor Energy where he was Director, Human Resources, Oil Sands Division for five years. Prior to that, he was Vice President, Human Resources for Saskatchewan Wheat Pool in Regina, Saskatchewan, where he oversaw the human resources function for over 3,600 employees located across Canada. In addition Michael has Labour Relations and Human Resources experience in the Health Care, Municipal and Provincial Government Sectors.

Michael holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of Alberta where his main areas of study were Labour Relations and Organizational Behaviour.