

Kathryn Shaver

Ms. Shaver joined the Nuclear Waste Management Organization in Canada upon its establishment in 2002. As Executive Director she coordinated the organization's design and delivery of a three-year national dialogue and public engagement program that accompanied NWMO's study of approaches for the long-term management of Canada's used nuclear fuel. In her present capacity Ms. Shaver manages engagement, communications and social sciences research at NWMO. As Corporate Secretary she supports the Board of Directors and the administration of the independent Advisory Council to the NWMO. She has extensive prior energy and environment experience in both government and industry.
