

Lewis Rusen

Office Managing Director, Toronto

Senior Partner, Leadership and Talent Consulting

Lewis Rusen is the Office Managing Director of Korn/Ferry International's Toronto office, and a Senior Partner of the Firm's Leadership Development and Talent Consulting group.

Mr. Rusen brings more than 15 years of experience in designing and implementing global talent management and leadership development initiatives to his role with Korn/Ferry. He also has extensive experience in organizational change programs, employee engagement strategies, executive coaching and talent assessment.

Most recently, Mr. Rusen served as vice president, organization effectiveness with Campbell Soup Company, having global responsibility and based in their world headquarters.

Prior to Campbell Soup Company, Mr. Rusen was an associate partner with Accenture's Human Performance practice, where he worked on change management initiatives for Fortune 500 clients across North America and Europe.

He began his business career with Hallmark Cards Canada, where he held a number of senior sales and business strategy roles.

A frequent speaker, Mr. Rusen has delivered more than 100 presentations and workshops on organizational change and effective leadership.

Mr. Rusen holds a bachelor's degree in business with honours from the University of Manitoba.